Dear

This is a final response to your 6 February 2009 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, received in the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator on 9 February 2009, for all records from January 1, 1996 through December 31, 2000 that refer in whole or in part to the cases of young children and babies that were kidnapped from their parents who were either disappeared, killed, or political prisoners during the military dictatorship in Argentina.

The Agency cannot accept your request because of the request's breadth, vagueness, and lack of specificity. The FOIA requires requesters to "reasonably describe" the information they seek so that professional employees familiar with the subject matter can locate responsive information with a reasonable amount of effort. The FOIA does not require federal agencies to perform research.

Sincerely,

Delores M. Nelson
Information and Privacy Coordinator
